Mentally Unbalanced, Mrs. Clara Kreines Commits Suicide in Her Ogden Home.

GI

OGDEN, April 5,-While suffering from mental unbalance due to ill health, Mrs. Clara Kreines, wife of Joseph Kreines, mmitted suicide at her home, 1901 Washington avenue, this afternoon by swallowing two ounces of carbolic acid. The discovery of the tragedy was not de until an hour after death had re-made until an hour after death had resulted, a neighbor woman coming upon the body in a bedroom when she called visit Mrs. Kreines.

For several months past it has been known to the relatives that the woman's mind was falling, but her condition was not deemed sufficiently serious to warrant her being sent to the mental hospital for treatment. Mrs. Kreines had not hinted at suicide and the fact that she left no message of any description leads the relatives to believe that she had not contemplated the act previous to today.

The carbolic acid was purchased by the woman's brother several days ago.

templated the act previous to today.

The carbolic acid was purchased by the woman's brother several days ago.

Mrs. Kreines stating that she wanted it for demestic purposes. So far as can be ascertained she swallowed the contents of the two-ounce bottle between 2 and 5 o'clock this afternoon. The body was not previous to his arrival. The body was found on the bed in an upstairs room. There was no investigation by the police and it is probable that no inquest will be held, the statement of the physician called in the statem months. The other children were at school this afternoon.

The funeral will be held Sunday with services at the home and a Jewish rabbi of Salt Lake in charge. Interment will be made in Mountain View cometery.

Since coming to Ogden Mr. Kreines has conducted a store and junk yard at 1900 Washington avenue.

der was about to have been commenced, when a compromise was effected and the charge reduced to manslaughter. Mrs. Rumball had been in jail awaiting trial since last July.

Helen Rumball was found dead on July 1 last by physicians who had been summoned on the statement of Mrs. Rumball that her stepdaughter was ill. An autopsy showed that her neck was broken in two places and that she had been dead some time.

The day was one of the hottest ever known in the Sacramento valley. Mrs. Rumball confessed that she had bound the girl hand and foot to joists in the strick where the thermometer was shown to have stood at 130 degrees. An incu-battor near by was hatching out chickens and daily on the head of the sun.

Mrs. Rumball and her brother, Arthur Lewis, were arrested. Experts testified that the girl idd not die of suffocation and that her neck could not have been broken in the manner revealed in the autopsy, by hanging. Medical experts swore that medical history recorded but four instances of similar dislocation. Other witnesses testified that Lewis, a powerful man, had boasted of his ability to break the neck of a steer in just the manner in which Helen Rumball's neck had been broken. Lewis got ten years on a compromise verdict of manslaughter.
